

Why Accent?

Accent has been providing business translations since 1992. The company is a member of the UK Association of Translation Companies. We have a team of professionally qualified native translators who are experienced in the relevant area of business to ensure the translation is not only accurate but gets the correct message across. By specialising in the international finance, legal and technical sectors we have gained an excellent reputation in Europe and worldwide for:

Confidentiality

Quality

Accuracy

Understanding the customer's business and requirements

All translators are experts in their selected field and a dedicated team of specialists can be linked to meet large volumes or tight deadlines. All assignments are monitored from start to finish to ensure an efficient and high quality service and we maintain records matching translator to task so that we are able to offer consistency over time. We charge on delivered word count in Word files, invoice in UK sterling and offer free estimates based on your scanned copy if requested. Notarised documents and Apostilles arranged.

Legal

Our team of legal translators are either lawyers with linguistic skills or specialists in legal terminology. Some of the legal documents we deal with are:

Memorandum & Articles of Association

Legal correspondence, court judgments

Trust instruments

Powers of attorney

Title deeds, Certificates of good standing

Contracts

Patents

Financial

Translating financial documentation requires accurate and up-to-date understanding of financial matters, which our translators have. In addition we understand the added pressure of time and we will always work to your deadlines. Some of the financial documents we deal with are:

Correspondence, certifying KYC documentation

Annual / quarterly reports

Financial statements

Marketing collateral

Financial Bulletins

Prospectuses

Medical reports for insurance claims

Technical

We provide technical translations for companies marketing their product or service worldwide. Companies dealing in other languages need to ensure that the message carried to the consumer is as accurate and meaningful as in the original language. Our technical translators have close contact with the industry of their expertise and are fluent in the terminology of both source and target languages. Examples of technical documentation:

User guides

Training Manuals

Brochures

Regularly updated documents such as product manuals are stored on our system and can be updated using CAT tools in a consistent and cost-effective manner.

Companies using a website to expand into other countries know that they potentially only get one chance to get a new customer. Accuracy and localisation of the website are essential to gaining new customers and Accent provide the translation and follow up support. The translating of the website can be incorporated as part of a range of services that includes building a marketing strategy and providing multilingual support for your intended markets such as:

Text and metadata translation

Marketing and business research

Advice on design and imagery

Foreign language support for customer emails
